

Plain Language Warranty

We warrantee your drum (and any artwork associated with the drum) against defects in materials and workmanship for one year after the date of purchase.

Thereafter, for the life of the drum, we warrantee your drum against workmanship defects.

For purposes of this warranty:

Workmanship is defined as the manor in which we crafted your drum (ie: how we made it).

Damages to drum or artwork resulting from negligence, abuse, or lack of care do not constitute a defect in materials or workmanship. Examples of non-warranted damage include, but are not limited to:

- splitting of hide do to dryness, overheating, or lack of care
- damage to artwork from abrasion, scratching, or normal wear

In the event of a warranted defect, we will do the following:

From date of purchase to one year after date of purchase, we will repair or replace (at our option) your drum (and any associated artwork) free of charge.

Thereafter, we will repair or replace (at our option) your drum free of charge. Repairs or replacement of artwork will be charged at our current rate(s).

-Steve & Vicki Trout
Black Stone